The Council Decision rejecting the Review Application was accordingly issued and a copy thereof was forwarded to the 3033, dated 9th Jan'y. '08. Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District The substance of the Decision was also communicated to the parties

Another Review Petition has been received from Rangiah Gowda, Puttay Gowda, Appaji Gowda and M. H Ramanna, through their Counsel Mr. B. Nagappa, Bar-at-law, praying for a reconsideration of the orders passed in ~~the~~ original Appeal No. 84 of 1904-05, before Govt. The present petitioners were none of them parties to the Review Application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

The grounds now urged for review are.

(1) that the Sri Lakshmi Devi temple at Malali in the Holé-Narsipur Taluk and

the Sri Narasimhaswami temple at Melahalli in the Hassan Taluk, were institutions built by the present petitioner Appaji Gowda's great-grandfather Kallali Gowda about 200 years ago ~~acted~~ and the idols were installed therein by him, solely for the benefit of the Gangadikar Vakkaligar community and that these idols are at present worshipped as family Deities by 2,000 families ~~of~~ consisting of 5,000 members of that community;

(2) that the temples were from time to time improved with the aid of subscriptions collected by the members of that community;

(3) that the management of the temples and ~~its~~ their affairs are at present in the hands of Appaji Gowda (one of the petitioners), as being a descendant of the original founder Kallali Gowda.

(4) that the worshippers ~~of~~ in these temples are exclusively the lineal male descendants of Pujari Lakkadoss who was originally appointed as pujari by the said founder, and that these worshippers are maintained from contributions made by the Vakkaliga families,

+ (5) that Venkata, in whose favour the Govt have passed their decision now sought to be reversed, is the son of the original pujari Chikkadi Venkata's widow Rangi's illegitimate daughter.

The petitioners bring to notice that if the said illegitimate boy Venkata is allowed to perform puja in those two temples, no Vakkaligar can attend the puja and take prasada at his hands, and that the result will be that the 2,000 families of that community will be deprived of the worship of their family deities. The petrs therefore pray on behalf of their community that immediate orders may be issued to stay execution of the Govt order now sought

It is submitted that the Govt order sought to be reviewed refers only to the pujarike in the Sri Lakshmi Devi temple at Malali, the other temple of Sri Narasimhaswami at Melahalli being referred to only incidentally. The former temple, viz of Sri Lakshmi Devi is not a ~~pu~~ private temple, but is a Muzrai institution, as it is ~~entitled to~~ in receipt of a cash grant of Rs 2-14-0 per annum besides inam lands. The other temple of Sri Narasimhaswami does not enjoy any cash grant from Govt, and it is not known if it has inam lands granted to it.

As regards the questions of the illegitimacy of boy Venkata, and the exclusive right of only the lineal male descendants of the original pujari to succeed to the Archakship of the temples in question, as raised in the Review petition, these identical questions had been remanded to the Deputy Commissioner for enquiry,

The case relates to the Pujaship of Lakshmi Devi temple at Malali and the Narasimhaswamy temple at Melkote There are about 21 Pujaries and the dispute is in regard to the succession to the share of Chikkadi Venkata or his wife Ranga

The facts of the case are clear from the previous pages of this note The case was twice disposed of by Govt. The matter was re-opened for reasons recorded by the then II. d. Councillor at Page 25 of this note The Dy Comm's report however says nothing about the new allegations of the present petition but refers only to the points already disposed of on receipt of Report no 219 dated 20th November 1907

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

Prays that orders conveyed in memo no 119 dated 12th July 1911 re the Pujaristhip of the above Temple may be held in abeyance for a period of one year as he intends resorting to Courts.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Grounds urged for review are:—

1) That owing to various reasons, the witnesses against the Pujari Venkata were not examined by the Dy. Commr, when the case was remanded to that officer for recording further evidence.

GPB—30,000—12 S 11

Serial No.

2) that if any Gymnastics for minors is allowed to work in the Temple, there will be breach of public peace.

The petr says that with a view to settle the Puja Hak, he will resort to Courts and prays that till then for a period of one year, the Govt orders may be held in abeyance.

Submitted for orders with the previous ref^{s}

21.11.11 to the Secd Committee.

As Anjaneyulu's are not maintainable in Civil Courts it is apparently the idea of petr^{s} to contest this for minor's aspect of inheritance and succession.

A year's time will be enough to enquire for a final adjudication of this matter.

The matter is now come to more or less an 'impasse' as the proposal of the Govt. does not help towards the solution of the difficulty. The matter has been in litigation for the last nearly ten years and it has come up before Govt. Thrice. Now to postpone giving effect to the decision of Govt. for a more or less indefinite period merely on a threat of breach of the peace by the defeated party argues weakness. At the same time to insist on the institution of prayer offering against the wishes of the majority of the devotees is not expedient. Either the Govt. may be asked to find a solution which may possibly be in the shape of money compensation to be paid to the aggrieved Pujari by the Obstructionists and his being allowed any other perquisites as Pujari. If the people are still refractory any other steps will have to be taken in the way of binding over the rowdy or in the ultimate

Venkata minor by guardian Nagappa Pujari of Arakali Lakshmidevamma Temple in the Arkeshvara Arakali Holenarasipur Taluq

Respondents
Counter-petitioners

The Counter-petitioner above named begs to state as follows:—

1. As per order dated 15th April 05 the said appeal No. 84 preferred by Shanmanna Gowda and others was rejected and the right of the Counter-petitioner Venkata to the pujari hak of Lakshmidevi Temple at Kalali village, Holenarasipur Tq. was confirmed.

2. Again, on review petition presented by Shanmanna Gowda and others, further enquiry was ordered to be made by the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan. The report of the latter officer dated 18th Nov. 07, holding (1) that the allegations of the petitioners that the Counter-petitioner was not legitimately descended from Chickadi Venkata is entirely unfounded and false and (2) that the Counter-petitioner is the grandson of the said Venkata ~~thr~~ his legitimate daughter

Thimmi and (3) that the Counter-petitioner, as such, was entitled to the pujari hak of the said temple was completely adopted by the Inmyanai department and the petitioner's review petition rejected as per order No 3034 dated 9th January 1908.

3. Again the petitioners above named presented a petition dated 21st January 1908 to this office apparently seeking a further review of the orders already passed and praying for stay of the execution of the order passed in the above apld. in favor of the Counter-pets.

4. On the presentation of the above petition, this office has sent it to the Deputy Commissioner for further enquiry. The order passed in the above appeal has not been executed.

5 Thus the matter was enquired into twice with the same result namely the Counter-pets is the hakdar of the said hak along with 21 others.

6. The object of these review petitions is to postpone the execution of the order of the Government passed in the above appeal and thus gain time. The orders passed in the appeal and the first review petition are conclusive, and binding against the petitioners. They have no right or reason to reopen the matter. No new matter or evidence has been alleged or introduced in the said petition dated 21st Janry: 1908 to justify a review beyond a statement that they and others are not pleased and satisfied with the orders passed by the Government. The unsuccessful party will seldom be satisfied with an order — that is, no unfavorable to him and no wonder it is the case with petrs.

7 If on every review petition presented by a party further enquiry is ordered there will be no finality to a decision passed by the Government. Such further enquiries give room room for manipulating evidence as will be seen from the said order of the Deputy Comr.

8. Therefore the Counter-petitioner prays that your honour will be pleased to recall the order of the further enquiry made on the petitioners' latest petition dated 21st January 1908 and the order of the Deputy Commissioner to put the Counter-petitioner in possession of his hak in pursuance of the order passed in the above appeal.

Sir,

Adverting to Huzur Secretary's letter No. 3348 dated 23rd January 1908, forwarding for enquiry and report together with the records, a petition of Rangiah praying for re-consideration of the Government order passed in appeal case No 84 of 1904-05 recognizing the claims of Venkata, grandson of Chikkadi Venkata to the Pujarishipp of Sri Lakshmi Devi temple at Mulali, Hole-narsipur Taluk, I have the honour to state that, as directed, execution of the previous Government order was ordered to be stayed on receipt of the above quoted letter.

2. The statements of petitioners and witnesses recorded by the Amildar of Hole-Narsipur Taluk as per instructions issued from this office are herewith submitted.

3:- It may be observed that on presentation of a revision application to Government by Kapanigowda & others in the matter, the case was remanded to this office for formal enquiry. The findings of the Deputy Commissioner (Mr K.R. Srinivasaiengar) on the two important questions on which the whole case hinges viz. the legitimacy of the Res=pondent Venkatappa's mother Thimmi, and the existence of any local custom, disentitling a daughter's son from succeed=ing to a Pujari Hak, were accepted by Government and a decision was passed accordingly in Review application No. 14 of 1905-06. The present review application of Rangiah and others is virtually against this decision of Government.

4:— The vernacular papers ending with the General Assistant Commissioner's Yadi No. 566. dated 29th October 1908, together with three previous files connected with this Pujari Hak are herein enclosed for reference.

Sir,

Adverting to your docket No. 269-297-07 dated 20th July 1910, requesting the submission of a detailed report as to how many daughters of Ranga (Widow of the late Pujari Chikkadu Venkata of Sri Lakshmidevi temple at Malali in the Holenarsipur Taluk) are alive and also how many daughters' sons, and what they have to say to the claim of Venkata, I have the honor to state that from the report of the Amildar, it is apparent that Ranga had three daughters (1) Giddi, (2) Narasi and (3) Thimma by name. — Giddi is reported to have only a son aged about 10 or 12 years, that she is living in Shimoga District and that her place of residence is not known.

3. Narasi had been given in marriage to one Kanchiga of Malali. She is stated to have died some two or three years ago, leaving behind 2 sons and one daughter. The age of the elder boy is 12 years and that of the younger is 8 years. These boys are under the protection of Kanchiga at Malali.

4. The third daughter Thimmi, was the wife of Naga. She also died some 2 years back, leaving behind her 3 sons. Venkata, Ranga and Thimma. These boys are under the care of Naga.

5. Kanchiga (husband of Narasi the 2nd daughter of Rangi) has deposed before the Amildar to the effect, that the Varavard of the Pujari-Ship may be made out in the name of Venkata, Son of Naga, and that he has no objection to the same. His deposition is on the record herewith submitted.

6. The Amildar adds that as Giddi's husband is dead, and that as stated to be living with her somewhere near Shimoga it has not been possible to take her statement in the matter.

7. The five files of Vernacular Records received with the docket under reply, together with the file of Vernacular papers ending with General Assistant Commissioner's Yadi No. 979/233 dated 16th March 1911, are herewith submitted for reference and obliging return when done with.

Decision

It is too late to reopen the question of legitimacy of Venkata's mother Timmi now. All the three sisters have minor sons. Kanchiga the father and guardian of Narasi's sons has been examined by the Auditor and has deposed that he has no objection & (on behalf of his minor sons) to Venkata being made the Pujari in place of his maternal grand-father. The other daughter of the original pujari, Giddi has gone away to the Shimoga Dist, and her place of residence is not known. His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments,

BANGALORE.

Sir,

With reference to Your docket No 1670 Muz 297-07 dated 20th January 1912, forwarding a petition from Lakkannagowda alleging that if any Gumasta for minor Venkata is allowed to work in the temple of Sri Lakshmidevi at Malali in the Holenarsipur Taluk, there will be breach of the peace and requesting the submission of a report, I have the honor to state as follows:—

2. From the report of the Amildar it is seen that the village of Malali contains 130 houses. Of these, 10 houses headed by one Doddegowda form one party, while the remaining 20 houses are led by the petitioner Lakkanna-gowda and are Thimmegowda. The Amildar from his local enquiries has learnt that it is the latter party who raise objection to the worship being conducted either Venkata by two families Naga, and States further that families known as "Odeluva hatte", "Nadukala hatte" and "Kelagana hatte" — perform worship in the temple by monthly turns. By this principle, each family will perform worship for a period of four months every year.

3. In the first family there are 6 hissedars, in the second there are 10 and in the third there are including Venkata and his Guardian Naga, five hissedars. The hissedars seem to have arranged among themselves that each partner or hissedar, may have 15 days worship when a turn comes to his family. In a family containing a large number of hissedars, each can get his turn of worship once in about two years. In the third family to which minor Venkata belongs, the Amildar learns that Venkata may get a chance to worship in the temple for 15 days in each year. Venkata is not attending to worship at present and that one, Menasi Huteha, the first partner of the third family, is said to be worshipping in the temple during the turn of Venkata, as well as during his own turn.

4 In the matter of allowing a period of

M.P.

Year prayed for by the petitioner, the Amildar expresses an Opinion that it may be likely that the two factions parties may Coalesce into one; or there may be scope to a Compromise, Should there be failure in Civil litigation.

5. The Amildar's Opinion appears to be Reasonable and the time asked for may be allowed.

6 The entire Correspondence Connected with the Case, together with a file of Vernacular papers ending with Chennaraipatna Sub Division Assistant Commissioner's Yadi No. 1059/200 dated 19th April 1912, is herewith Submitted for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant.
